Illinois Abroad Day on Sept. 1 - All are invited https://urldefense.proofpoint.com/v2/url?u=http-3A__www.studyabroad.illinois.edu_illinoisabroadday-23.Vdc-2D8uffYTE&d=AwMFaQ&c=8hUWFZcy2Z-Za5rBPlktOQ&r=2McPeoqGKzcR0G0UZlqPinhdBvuppR96W1ChlyxdO0&m=I9ttbcl_RawRy7JoficTH8qKRACHpku_wRWqWIYSHuA&s=B22fp8J3AKXXt1ByA9bOnLW6k7aCh5J5zcVu3a4eyFY&e=
Please join us for the inaugural Illinois Abroad Day on Sept. 1, a collaborative campus wide effort to increase the visibility and accessibility of study abroad and exchange programs for all Illinois students in all academic units. There will be workshops, fairs, and a keynote lecture. Please visit our website (studyabroad.illinois.edu) for more information and a full schedule.

Interested in major scholarships to help you study abroad? The Institute of International Education (IIE) provides international awards for current students and recent alumni. The University of Illinois is hosting IIE Chicago’s regional manager, Sarah Gleisner, to present on study abroad scholarship opportunities available through the IIE, and how students can become competitive applicants.

Two distinct informational sessions will be held on Monday, August 31 in room 101 of the International Studies Building (910 S. Fifth Street):
2:00-3:00 pm:
Scholarship opportunities that support studying abroad as an undergraduate at Illinois: 1) the Boren, which provides study abroad scholarships of $4,000-$20,000 for U.S. citizens to study in non-Western locations and facilitates entry into employment with the federal government; and 2) the Gilman, a need- and merit-based award that provides up to $8,000 per year for U.S. citizen undergraduate students to pursue summer, semester, or year-long study abroad opportunities in any other country.
3:00-4:00 pm:
Opportunities that fully fund a year abroad for after your undergraduate degree. Most students apply for these in the Fall of their senior year, as recent alumni, or during graduate school: A. the Fulbright, which funds graduate study, independent research (in any field), fine arts work, or English teaching assistantships around the globe; B) the Schwarzman, which funds a specialized international public policy Master’s program in China (no Mandarin required), and C) the Whitaker, for overseas bioengineering work.

Please come learn from an expert about these scholarship opportunities and where they can take you. 30-40 Illinois students win these scholarships each year. Will you be next?

ABOUT THE SPEAKERS
Dr. Morag Kersel is assistant professor in the Department of Anthropology at DePaul University. She received her Ph.D. from the Department of Archaeology at the University of Cambridge (2006). Her research interests include the consumption and presentation of archaeological artifacts from the Eastern Mediterranean. She has excavated and conducted field research in Canada, Greece, Israel, Jordan, Palestine, the U.S., and currently co-directs the Galilee Prehistory Project investigating the Chalcolithic in Israel and the Follow the Pots project in the Dead Sea Plain of Jordan. Christina Luke and Morag Kersel are the authors of US Cultural Diplomacy and Archaeology: Soft Power, Hard Heritage (Routledge 2013).

Dr. Andreas Pantazatos is Co-Director of the Centre for the Ethics of Cultural Heritage at Durham University in the U.K., where he received his PhD in Philosophy. He teaches and conducts research on normative and professional ethics in that department and leads an innovative MA program on the ethics of archaeology and cultural heritage. His primary interests are the philosophy of cultural heritage and archaeology, ethics of stewardship and trusteeship, and epistemic injustice and museums. He is currently editing a volume on the ethics of cultural heritage and immigration for Routledge Press.
